ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY

1 ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY/SEXUAL/ADULT BULLYING

The Board of management of Cuan na Gaillimhe CNS recognises that all employees have the right to a workplace free from harassment of any nature including bullying and sexual harassment and is fully committed to ensuring that all employees are able to enjoy that right. Harassment and sexual harassment is prohibited in Cuan na Gaillimhe CNS. There is a responsibility on all employees to ensure a workplace free from harassment and bullying for all other employees, and to be aware of this policy. Any complaint of harassment shall be fully and properly investigated and, if substantiated, will be regarded as grounds for disciplinary action up to and including dismissal. An attempt will be made to resolve the complaint informally in the first instance but if this is not possible, a formal procedure will be invoked. Confidentiality will be ensured, insofar as is possible, at all times during the investigation for all parties involved. This policy applies also to isolated incidents of harassment, verbal and/or physical by members working within the school and/or by others within and outside the community of the school.

What is Harassment:

Harassment is where one person subjects the victim to any unwelcome act, request or conduct, including spoken words, gestures or the production, display or circulation of written words, pictures or other material which could reasonably be regarded as offensive, humiliating or intimidating to the victim.

What is Sexual Harassment?

Sexual harassment means unwanted conduct of a sexual nature or other conduct based on a person's sex which affects the dignity of men and women at work. This can include unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct which is offensive and causes discomfort or humiliation to the individual concerned.

Examples of sexual harassment include:

1. Unwanted physical or verbal advances.
2. Unwanted touching or physical gestures.
3. Comments and remarks of a sexual or discriminatory nature.
4. Unwelcome comments about personal appearance.
5. Demands of sexual favours.
6. Displays of pinups and pornographic material.
7. Innuendoes of a sexual nature or based on a person's sex.
8. Bullying.

This list is not exhaustive.

What is Adult Bullying?

The Health & Safety Authority defines bullying as follows:

Bullying in the workplace is repeated aggression, verbal, psychological or physical, conducted by an individual or group against another person or persons. Bullying is where aggression or cruelty, viciousness, intimidation or a need to humiliate, dominate the relationships. Isolated incidents of aggressive behaviour, while to be condemned, should not be described as bullying. In the workplace environment there can be conflicts and interpersonal difficulties. Many of these are legitimate industrial relations difficulties, which should be dealt with through the appropriate industrial relations channels. Only aggressive behaviour which is systematic and on going should be regarded as bullying.

Adult Bullying/harassment/isolated incidents can take many different forms, which usually include:

- intimidation or harassment;

- aggression;
- verbal abuse;
- humiliation;
- undermining;
- dominance or abuse of power;
- different or unfavourable treatment;
- exclusion or isolation.

Key factors of Adult Bullying are that the behaviour is generally:

- persistent;
- unwanted;
- subtle ;and
- non-physical.

2 STEPS TO PREVENT HARASSMENT OCCURRING

Cuan na Gaillimhe CNS through its website will ensure all members of the school community – including parents and staff – are made aware of the code of behaviour and that harassment and sexual harassment are prohibited.

3 MAKING A COMPLAINT OF HARASSMENT/SEXUAL HARASSMENT/ ADULT BULLYING

Any employee who feels he or she has been or is being harassed or bullied by another employee of the Board of Management or by a parent or member of the school community should ask the perpetrator to stop.

Where this form of action is unsuccessful the employee may report the matter to any of the following- the Principal, INTO staff representative (currently also the Principal). If the complaint involves the Principal the employee may report the matter to a member of the Board of Management of Cuan na Gaillimhe CNS.

Attempts will be made to resolve the matter informally, if appropriate. If it is not possible to resolve the matter informally, a Formal Complaints procedure shall be applied incorporating the following steps:

1. A written report to the Board of Management should be made by the complainant or an authorised person to whom the complaint is being made and signed by the complainant.
2. The complaint will be investigated with minimum delay as confidentially as possible by two individuals named by the Board of Management. The Principal will consult

- with the teacher representative and/or chairperson on the BoM with regard to these two individuals. If the complaint is made against the Principal, chairperson will consult with the teacher representative. For the school year 2016-2017, in the absence of a second teacher/teacher representative, the chairperson will consult with at least one other board member. If the case is one of sexual harassment the Board of Management will ensure that one of the named individuals is of the same sex as the complainant and the alleged perpetrator.
3. Both parties may be accompanied/represented at all interviews/ meetings held, and these shall be recorded.
  4. Where a complaint is found to be substantiated, the extent and the nature of the harassment will determine the form of action to be taken. These actions may include a verbal warning, a written warning, suspension from some duties with or without pay, suspension from full duties with or without pay or dismissal. If an employee is harassed by a parent/ member of the school community or any individual/group, the Board of Management may seek, on health and safety grounds, to have the person/group barred from the school grounds.
  5. Where an employee is victimised as a result of invoking or participating in any aspect of the complaints procedure, including acting as a witness for another employee, such behaviour will also be subject to disciplinary action.

No record of any complaint will be registered on an employee's file unless the formal procedure outlined above has been invoked.

It is the policy of the school that issues of harassment are best dealt with within the school. However, no aspect of this Policy affects any employee's individual legal rights to take their complaint outside of the school.

4 POLICY APPROVAL/RATIFICATION

This policy was ratified by the Board of Management of Cuan na Gaillimhe CNS on the 24 October 2016 and the Parent Teacher Association was consulted in drawing up the policy. It was reviewed on 26th of February 2018
